

2011 Calendar of Events

Friday, January 21, 2011 at 7:00 p.m., Kerr Hall.

The African Children's Choir

An 80 minute program complete with dance, costumes, drama, and singing. CD's and DVD's will be available for purchase before, during, and after the program.

A free will offering will be taken during this concert that will go to help the African Children's Choir.

Saturday, March 12, 2011 at 4:00 p.m. Sanctuary.

Choral Festival with guest conductor, Dr. James Kallembach

This Choral Festival is being sponsored by the Central North Carolina Chapter of the American guild of Organists (CNCCAGO). The choir will be comprised of both members of the CNCCAGO and other local church choir members in the Triangle Area. The festival will be conducted by guest conductor Dr. James Kallembach who serves as Director of Choral Activities at The University of Chicago. The festival will be accompanied on Edenton Street's magnificent 97-rank Létourneau Pipe Organ by guest organist, Dr. Tom Fielding. Dr. Fielding serves as Director of Music at Sacred Heart Cathedral (Raleigh) and Dean of the CNCCAGO.

Friday, April 22, 2011 at 7:30 p.m., Sanctuary.

Good Friday Service

The Chancel Choir of Edenton Street UMC, orchestra and organ will be presenting Maurice Duruflé's famed Requiem as part of the Good Friday Service.

Sunday, May 15, 2011 at 2:00 p.m., Sanctuary.

Young All Stars Spring Performance with guest conductor, Maestro Grant Llewellyn.

The N. C. Symphony presents a concert of Young All Stars which is an exclusive chamber orchestra for advanced high school musicians led by Music Director Grant Llewellyn (Musical Director for the NC Symphony) in partnership with the Triangle's Philharmonic Association. The Program will include the following selections: Francis Poulenc's Organ Concerto in G Minor (featuring Josh Dumbleton, organ); W. A. Mozart's Serenade No. 12 for Winds in C minor; and Franz Josef Haydn's Symphony No. 104 in D Major (The "London" Symphony).

We are requesting a contribution of $10/ person to help make this event possible. This fee is used to offset costs of the orchestra, including instrument rental, music rental, and NCS musicians' salaries for coaching sectionals with Young All Stars participants.

Sunday, June 5, 2011, at 2:00 p.m., Kerr Hall.

Meet the Author: A Conversation with Tim, Vernon, and Martha Tyson

An open dialogue session on Tim's book and recent Hollywood movie: Blood Done Sign My Name. They will have the opportunity to speak about the book, reading excerpts, and show a few video clips from the movie. If you have not had the opportunity to read it you can check it out at the ESUMC Library.

Friday, July 8, 2011, at 7:30 p.m., Sanctuary.

Harp and Organ Concert

Please join us for an evening of beautiful harp and organ music featuring the talents of local harpist, Anita Burroughs-Price accompanied by Dr. William J. Weisser on the organ.

Friday, October 21, 2011, at 7:30 p.m., Sanctuary.

Albert Schweitzer: Memoirs from Africa (Words of Albert Schweitzer and the music of J. S. Bach)

A multimedia presentation on the life, theology, and writings of Albert Schweitzer accompanied by the organ music of J. S. Bach. This presentation was written by Thurston Moore from Tennessee, and will featuring Josh Dumbleton playing the 97-rank Létourneau Pipe Organ of Edenton Street. This presentation is centered around Albert Schweitzer's book Reverence For Life which is available for checkout through the ESUMC Library or available for purchase through local area bookstores..

Sunday, November 13, 2011, at 10:30 a.m., Sanctuary,
Bicentennial Celebration Festival Morning Worship Services

You are cordially invited to attend a very special day in the life of Edenton Street where we celebrate the Bicentennial Anniversary of our church's founding. The celebratory worship service will also include the performance of a new piece of music commissioned and specially composed for our Chancel Choir on the occasion of our 200th Anniversary. The Anthem is being written by South Carolina composer, Dan Forrest.

Sunday, November 13, 2011 at 2:00 p.m., Kerr Hall.

Meet the Author: A Conversation with Sue McDowell

ESUMC member and author Sue McDowell will present an open dialogue session on her new book Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, 1811-2011 that is being released in celebration of Edenton Street's Bicentennial. The book tracks the history of Edenton Street from its founding in 1811 to the current day. Please join us in this special time as Sue talks about some of the interesting things she discovered about Edenton Street's history. A limited number of books are available for purchase; please contact Henry Barnette to reserve your copy (919-785-1638 or jbarnette1@aol.com). A limited number of books will also be available for sale at this event.

Friday, December 2, 2011, at 8:00 p.m., Sanctuary,

Annual Messiah Sing-In

2011 marks the 33rd Anniversary of the annual Messiah Sing-In. In this performance, the audience sings the choral selections of the Christmas portion of Messiah. The concert is accompanied by members of the Triangle Youth Philharmonic. The audience is requested to bring a bag of non-perishable canned goods for the Urban Ministry Center and the Food Bank of North Carolina. You are asked to bring your own copy of Messiah as a limited number of scores will be available.

Sunday, December 11, 2011, at 4:00 p.m., Sanctuary,.

Annual Christmas Program of the Chancel Choir of Edenton Street U.M.C.

Members of the 80-member Chancel Choir will present their annual Christmas Program filled with great sacred music expressing the joy of the Christmas season.

Friends of the Fine Arts Series of Edenton Street United Methodist Church

The Fine Arts Series of Edenton Street is made possible solely through your generous support. Your generous gift will enable us to present these series of fine arts events at minimal cost, usually free of charge as Edenton Street continues in its mission of Sharing Christ from the Heart of Raleigh. Your contribution can be made as a memorial gift or in honor of a special person or occasion. Please provide the church office with this information when you send you donation, and appropriate acknowledgement will be sent to the person(s) you indicate.

Checks should be made payable to the ESUMC Fine Arts Series and mailed to:

Edenton Street United Methodist Church
228 West Edenton Street
Raleigh, NC 27603
ATTN: Josh Dumbleton, Associate Director of Music/ Organist